THE PORTLAND PILGRIMAGE

Monday, April 26th, at one o'clock, about fifty members of Boston Commandery including the officers, guards and choir left the Masonic Temple, Boston, in special Busses and private automobiles for Portland, Maine. The weather was ideal and the trip was uneventful, until near Portland a party of masked bandits (?) from Portland Commandery endeavored to hold the party up. They were looking for our Eminent Commander, but he being disguised in a Pierce Arrow Car, they failed to recognize him and he managed to make his escape. Having missed the Commander, the party was in a very threatening mood and they did coerce and force the entire party to accompany them to the highest tribunal in their asylum.

Charges were preferred and sentences were imposed and each one had to do penance around the dinner table for one hour, that table being spread with all of the good things to eat and drink that the laws of Maine allow.

Before partaking, however, our Eminent Commander whom they had also captured, agreed to sing as part of his penance, the "Boston Commandery Hymn" all joining in the chorus which was so thoroughly enjoyed that the barriers of reserve were removed and the right hand of fraternal fellowship was extended and an address of welcome delivered by a prominent member of Portland Commandery, which was fittingly replied to by our Eminent Commander who, in the course of his remarks, said that Boston Commandery No. 2 of Massachusetts and Portland Commandery No. 2 of Maine should be on very close fraternal relations with each other. General solos by Sir Knight Richard Wilson were enjoyed as also the singing by our chorus was fully appreciated.

After the festivities in the dining room, all repaired to the asylum where the order of the temple was conferred, Boston Commandery assisting in the work. After the work, our Guards under direction of Captian Arthur N. Hale, put on a very effective drill including their sword drill. Then we enjoyed an excellent by the Portland Commandery Guards.

After the Commandery closed, we were escorted to the Falmouth Hotel where a mid-night breakfast was served. Portland Commandery was given three rousing cheers and the bond of true Christian Knighthood was strengthened by the cement of brotherly love.

Arriving back in Boston at an early hour, each Sir Knight was thoroughly satisfied with the trip.

It was rather interesting to note that in the last class of candidates there were six from Roslindale R. A. Chapter, which causes us to believe that Boston Commandery has some real workers in Roslindale.
